The screenshot shows the application page for the University of The Bahamas Government Tertiary Grant Programme. At the top left is the University of The Bahamas logo. Below it is the title "Overview of The Bahamas Government Tertiary Grant Programme". A paragraph explains that the programme is intended to provide tuition and course fees for full-time Bahamian students, subject to eligibility criteria. Below this are three status indicators: a blue circle with a white 'i' for "Section is Pending Completion", a red checkmark for "Section is Complete", and a red asterisk for "Section is Required". Two links are provided: "Click Here to Apply for Bahamas Government Tertiary Grant Programme" (marked with a red checkmark and asterisk) and "Click Here to View and Accept Terms of Continuation on Bahamas Government Tertiary Grant Programme" (marked with a red checkmark and asterisk). Below this is the "Criteria for Bahamas Government Tertiary Grant Programme" section, which lists eligibility requirements: being a Bahamian citizen, being a full-time enrolled student (new and returning) with a minimum of 12 credits per semester, maintaining a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00, and remaining in satisfactory academic and disciplinary standing. At the bottom, there is a prompt "Please SUBMIT your application" and three buttons: "View Application Summary", "View Checklist", and "Submit Application" (highlighted with a yellow border).
